

History

The history of The Wigston Band can be traced back to the nineteenth century, when it was originally founded as 'The Wesleyan Mission Band' until it changed its name to 'The Wigston Temperance Band' under the baton of local musical shop owner, Charlie Moore, who took the band to the country's most prestigious venues including 'The Crystal Palace' and the 'Belle Vue Halls' in Manchester. Charlie's son Ted continued to conduct the band to many contest honours including the National Finals on several occasions. In 2010 the band was given charity status, ensuring it can continue to make music and strengthen its community ties further.

PROUDLY SUPPORTED BY G.Seller

As of 2018 The Wigston Band were proud to announce a new partnership with funeral directors G.Seller. After attending a number of concerts, the company's director contacted the band regarding sponsorship. This partnership ensures better opportunities for all members of the organisation and to the band's ability to coach youngsters.
